

Code of Conduct – Returning to Premier League Kicks

This Code of Conduct outlines Burnley FC in the Community’s expectations of all participants that attend a session on their return from the Covid-19 lockdown. Any participant who breaches any of the below expectations will be removed from the session immediately and not invited back to participate until further notified. In the space at the bottom of the document please sign and date, we would prefer, if possible, a Parent/Guardian to also sign for children under the age of 16.

By signing this code of conduct I understand that I must:

- Comply with all health and safety procedures put in place by Burnley FC in the Community staff.
- Social Distance at all times, where possible 2 metres from the nearest person.
- Sanitise regularly, as a minimum before you enter the session and after when you are leaving.
- Not attend any session if I am displaying any symptoms of the Coronavirus.
- Respect Burnley FC in the Community staff and participants at all times.
- Not deliberately put myself or anyone else at risk throughout the session.
- Bring my own source of hydration, labelled clearly with my name.
- Not touch any of the coaching equipment used within the session e.g. cones / markers.
- Listen to the clear safety instructions provided by Burnley FC in the Community Coaches.
- Arrive at the session ready to take part, with the correct clothing and footwear.
- Inform Burnley FC in the Community staff of anyone breaching this Code of Conduct and putting either themselves or others at risk.

Disclaimer

Burnley FC in the Community have worked tirelessly to ensure that all facilities, equipment and playing areas are safe and secure to limit the spread of the coronavirus. This is supported by rigorous procedures and extensive risk assessments and procedures put in place.

By signing this Code of Conduct, you understand that although the risk is mitigated, there is still a chance of transmitting Coronavirus due to increased exposure to other participants and staff. If this unfortunately occurs, Burnley FC in the Community cannot take any responsibility and will also need to be informed so they can complete their role in the Track & Trace process.
